

Aquacade Rehearsals

Scores of young swimmers are completing rehearsals at the city plunge for the annual aquatic extravaganza staged by the Torrance Recreation Department.

This year's aquacade will have a "Bon Voyage" theme and will feature acts typical of Hawaii, France, Spain, the Orient, and the South Pacific.

Water ballets, dances and comedy performances are scheduled for 8:15 p.m. on Aug. 12 and 13.

This is the fifth annual aquacade to be staged at the plunge, 3331 Torrance Blvd.

World War I Veterans Hold Dinner in Lomita

The Veterans of World War I will hold a dinner next Sunday at the VFW Hall in Lomita, 24425 Allienne. The dinner is set for 11 a.m. and will be over at 3 p.m. Cost is $1.50 per person and 75 cents for children under 12.

The menu includes a swiss steak dinner with dessert and coffee. Merchants will donate prizes to be given on adult tickets only.

AQUACADE PRACTICE . . . Practicing for their roles in the Torrance Recreation Department's annual aquacade, to be held in Benstead Plunge Friday and Saturday, are Maureen Andrew, 18; Ingrid Fink, 14; and Sally Skillman, 14. These girls will be among several water belles who'll paddle in pretty patterns during the annual aquacade. Performances, free to the public, are set for 8:15 p.m. each evening.

Turn set on or off, change channels or adjust volume by remote control.
